Lace Curtains.

Prices Reduced Almost One-Half.

If you want some extraordinary bargains in Lace Curtains here is the greatest opportunity of the year. We place on sale to-morrow a most remarkable gathering of Lace Curtains in odd lots, odd pairs and two or three pairs of a kind.

We carry such enormous assortments and do such a large Upholstery business that odd lots are inevitable. To make room for new goods that are constantly arriving it is necessary to move these odd lots without delay. HENCE WE CUT THE PRICES REGARDLESSLY.

As all lines are fully represented, the values are uncommonly great.

PIPER TALKS TO THE CAPTAINS.

Says Brooklyn Must Be Cleaned Up—More Cops for Coney Island.

Deputy Police Commissioner Piper, who is in charge of Brooklyn and Queens boroughs during the absence of Deputy Commissioner Ebleton, had a number of the Brooklyn captains before him in the Smith street headquarters yesterday morning. He instructed Capt. Hayes, who is now in charge of the 52nd street station, having succeeded Capt. Maude, who is suspended under charges, that he must clean up that precinct. Capt. Hayes said he would do so and then applied for some plain clothes men to assist him.

Capt. O'Brien of the Flushing avenue station and Capt. Gallagher of the Coney street station also asked that plain clothes men be detailed to their precincts. Capt. Piper promised them all the aid necessary.

Regarding the observance of the Sunday law Capt. Piper said to a reporter: "I do not know what plans have been made for Coney Island to-morrow, but I have an idea that a detail of additional men will be sent there. All these matters were attended to by Deputy Commissioner Ebleton before he sailed for Europe. There is nothing new in the police situation. Things are going along smoothly. I have not seen the Rev. Cortland Myers yet, but if he comes here I will be glad to meet him."
